Peter YEARBURY

Progressive Independent

My principal place of residence is in the Central Ward of the Linwood-Central-Heathcote Community Board area.

Resident of Haast St. Recently appointed a Justice of the Peace. Member of Oxford Tce Baptist Church.

Self employed part time service industry professional.

Been part of Christchurch for over 30 years. Previous local authority experience includes City Councillor, Community Board member and a committee member of four different resident and ratepayers association groups. 28 years service club involvement (Lions International) Currently second term as a club President.

I am strongly community minded, spirited and remain active to ensure that our community and public services are the best that can be achieved.

My dedication to helping people would enable me to contribute to our area, ward and Community Board with enthusiasm, experience and with a clear vision for quality improvements for our city environments.

Opposed to the sale of any CCC assets.
