The Art Centre has been one of my favourite destinations in Christchurch since moving here in 2008. We were so sad when it was unavailable during the earthquakes and when we heard people's studios were destroyed. We missed the artist market on the weekend where we often shopped for gifts. As the centre has come back to activity I have enjoyed beautiful concerts in the cathedral, shopped at the unique gift shops, taken workshops in basket weaving and dance, and have enjoyed multiple dance events with the Swingtown Rebels at Altiora. A thriving arts community is an essential part of what makes Christchurch a wonderful place to live. Not being into sports, I won't get much benefit from the new arena, but any funding for the Art Centre will be a huge benefit and enjoyment for me and my family. I look forward to bringing my granddaughter there as she grows, showing her the historic building, and the sculptures, and tasting the delicious fudge and gelato. We may go to the movies, shop for crafts, or watch performers. I can't believe that the City isn't keen to fund such a treasure and I hope they find a way to keep this incredible resource in the heart of the city, available for us all to enjoy.

The time I have spent in The Arts Centre (working on theatre productions and a regular visitor and patron of the arts) is a significant and valuable part of my life. I imagine this is the same for very many people. The cultural, artistic and social richness provided by and in the Arts Centre is even more valuable for those affected by the earthquakes and EQC. Please fund the Arts Centre so its fundamental role in helping to keep us mentally healthy can continue.

Without the arts are we no more than drones? Without art and appreciation and learning to create, we cannot lead our young people to succeed. We inhibit the joy that can be found all around is through observation and self discovery. The arts centre has been a part of so many lives and should be for thousands to come. Do not let it fall by the wayside to pander to companies and profit. Without art, are we anything but drones?

I think the Christchurch City Council should fund The Arts Centre because it is an important cultural space for the community to gather, as well as for musicians to connect with the community and bring people together. It is also a great tourist location, for visitors to see this part of Christchurch's history. In addition, this is also a platform where budding musicians begin, grow, and further develop their career.

The Art Centre is an fantastic asset for Christchurch. It was an emotional moment when the Great Hall was re-opened after the earthquakes and there was finally something beautiful again in the city. I attend art performances and exhibitions in the Art Centre several times per year. These visits contribute to wellbeing, give a sense of belonging and being part of an appreciative community. Art is much more than a "nice to have". I was concerned when the decision was made regarding new stadium, that money would run out. I don't think it's sensible to invest in a stadium, convention centre, and not in the ArtCentre. One is not more important than the other. Huge effort has gone in the restauration of these beautiful buildings, and the atmosphere is close to being back. It would be such a shame to see all this wasted. I value the Arts Centre highly, and would support to continue funding it in the long-term plan. Thank you for the opportunity to submit.

Dear Christchurch City Council. I am writing in heartfelt support of continuing to fund the precious Taonga of our Arts Centre in your longterm plan. This funding is crucial in providing the programmes and staff who make the events and are there to give us the fantastic programmes we see coming from our Arts Centre. If this disappears it will be a dismal and sad day for our city. My parents were graduates of Canterbury college and I feel their footprints in many ways. That is why I signed up to be a volunteer at the Arts Centre, because I was excited to show this special place to visitors, after the earthquakes and the long dry isolation from our inner city, I wanted to be part of the city and its flowering. I have seen and been involved with the committed staff and they are incredible at making the volunteers feel appreciated and involved. We are invited to see every new development and at the last "Off Centre" event which was enjoyed by many Cantabrians, I felt, Wow, this is really feeling like the Old Christchurch. People were sitting watching a fabulous busking act, children running through bubbles enjoying the heritage buildings that have mostly been meticulously repaired. But the Beautiful buildings need the soul, the people there enjoying them This is impossible without Christchurch City Council to continue their long term funding. I can't imagine the alternative. We need this unique and beloved Arts Centre to continue its good work, and for visitors to enjoy the jewel in the Arts precinct.

I am a long term resident of Christchurch (have lived here for 40 of my 60 years). The Art Centre is one of my most cherished parts of Christchurch. I remember when it was a thriving hub for visitors - with food, art, crafts, music in abundance. I have visited recently and love the restoration. Just last week I recommended a visitor to Christchurch to check it out as it is a unique and memorable place to visit. With so much spent on restoration, the Art Center can continue to add to the unique character of central Christchurch enticing tourists and locals alike. It needs good funding to survive, please continue to support the Art Centre financially so that it can continue to make Christchurch the special place that it is.

The Arts Centre truly is a taonga of Christchurch. (Far more so than the Anglican Cathedral. Not my rates!) Just to wander around the Arts Centre is good for the soul but of course it offers so much creativity for us to enjoy. It's wonderful for locals and is surely a really attractive offering for visitors. I believe the Council should include support of the Arts Centre in the long-term plan for the city. I'll go further - it would be outrageous not to. Liz Grant

If the earthquake taught us anything, it should be to honour our heritage, and the history of the Art Centre and what it offers is our heritage. It also offers a future of sharing of every genre, creativity on many levels but most importantly a meeting place, a sharing space, and in current times and global change, this must be protected. Councils may be elected in democracy and representative of the "majority," but they come and go, our heritage should not, and we should uphold and protect it for future generations.

I believe it to be extremely important that the Council should continue to support The Arts Centre Te Matatiki Tai ora. My wife and I settled in Christchurch 8 years ago. One of the things that has always attracted us to Christchurch in the past has been the strong commitment to seeing a strong theatre and arts sector operating in the heart of the city. We have been impressed by the way The Arts Centre Te Matatiki Tai Ora brings life and vibrancy to the artistic hub of the city around the Art Gallery, bridging the structures of the amazing heritage buildings of the old university, with people, activity and life. For there to be any question of that vibrancy and life being lost to the city is a real concern. People (residents and visitors alike) engage with the Arts Centre, and it is a place which people flock to. Surely that is what we want for our centre city? The theatre and entertainment precinct is operating well, and the relocation of the Court Theatre to that zone will be a huge bonus. The retail and business hubs are bringing their own sense of life in the city - obviously, though, with a commercial focus. It is important that the arts, also, are not lost sight of, with the interactive and engaging programmes of The Arts Centre adding huge value to our community and Tamariki alongside the more static displays in the Art Gallery and (soon to be) refurbished Canterbury Museum. For the council to be considering stopping funding The Arts Centre without some clear indication of what the plan is for the city in relation to arts generally, and without open consultation with its many users, feels short-sighted. The arts are important to life and well-being. Mechanisms for continuing funding The Arts Centre should be being actively considered. We have amazing heritage buildings alongside Worcester Boulevard. Let's ensure that they are filled with people and activity for years to come.

The arts centre provides a facility to the arts and wider community that no other entity can, it is essential that both creatives and lovers of the arts have a place where all levels of participation can be practiced and enjoyed, without the arts centre we will have no such place. For me the arts centre is more an icon of the city than the old church in the square, and as such should be funded by the community it serves!

I cannot imagine our city's cultural life without the Arts Centre. We have enjoyed so many events in that space, covering art, drama, dance and of course music. We love the cinema and the restaurant too. So much heritage exists in this complex, which my wife and I both attended as University of Canterbury students to complete our Bachelor of Arts degrees. I have performed on many occasions onstage in the Great Hall. No Arts Centre of this size can possibly survive alone. Public funding is an inevitable part of an enterprise like this. We urge to Council to reconsider its no-funding decision without delay. A hugely important part of our city life cannot just founder and disappear. Michael and Elizabeth Lawrence

At the meeting on Monday, it showed that the Arts Centre is more than a hub for performers, teaching, exhibiting, and creating. It is the heart of the cultural life in Christchurch and a big part of the well-being for the people they work there (performer, creator, retailer, hospitality) and the audiences and people who find a relaxing space within the area of the Arts Centre (and is a great "counterweight" to Rugby or Cricket, etc.). There must be more culture than only sport. I grew up in Austria with lots of cultural events, theatre, concerts, exhibitions, etc. and it is a big part of my education and my spare-time activities. I live now 18 years in Christchurch and have settled in very well and I am involved in many societies, clubs, they have to do with history, arts, and so much more. One thing that always gives me great pleasure is being in the Art Centre. When I arrived in Christchurch, the first I visited was that place and bought my first book in the former bookshop and attended many talks, exhibitions, performances and the weekend markets. If this will become a shopping centre or something worst, then it will kill the cultural heart of Christchurch. Visitors are coming back to our city and come to see the Arts Centre not the many glass boxes they are built right now. After the earthquakes, we lost most of our heritage buildings. It was such a great relief to see the renovations going on in the Arts Centre. Shall this all be now for nothing? I am not sure why that is happening, but as a historian I see it so often that history is for some people uncomfortable. Buildings alone are not building awareness, but it helps to keep the story alive, to re-interpret it to make it better understandable. We cannot rub the past off. We have to be aware of our history and learn to live with it. If the Arts Centre does not get the support it got the last few years for a good reason it will take away many positive things from our society, our cultural life and our past. It will be a sad moment when the Arts Centre has to close and becomes a ghost house (even when there is some commercial enterprise in there that cannot replace arts, creative culture, theatre, arts exhibitions, cultural events that also shows the diversity and inclusiveness this special place offers now). As a woman who moved to Christchurch 18 years ago and is now a part of the Christchurch fabric, please, consider your decision and keep the Arts Centre this special place it is now - the cultural heart of Christchurch. Ngā mihi nui!

Christchurch we need to be encouraging Artist and supporting the arts equally to the other areas such as a giant stadium which is costing us an arm and a leg one idea is that the money that was going towards the water could be used instead for the Arts Centre.

The Arts Centre is one of the few cultural hubs of Christchurch. If we lost it, a huge amount of the city's identity would be gone. It is imperative that the council allocates funding to continue operating this vital space for future generations. As a young person, I recognise and applaud the many different efforts to revitalise our CBD, and urge the council to recognise that these efforts should be prioritised. And one of the biggest components of this revitalisation has been the presence of the Centre. Providing a space for artists from many different backgrounds to create, and for members of the public to be able to engage with local art in so many different ways is an incredibly unique thing, and the council must realise this.

The Arts Centre is one of the very few, fully functioning heritage buildings in our city post earthquakes. The proposed withdrawal of funding is astonishingly shortsighted. The Arts Centre must be one of the most popular tourist destinations and the multiple internal and external areas and galleries host a fascinating and eclectic mix of activities, functions, stores and eating areas. This idea of Ōtautahi Christchurch City Council must be surely a perfect example of that age old adage "short term gain for long term pain.."z please do not do this. Susan Horne

I absolutely believe that the CCC needs to make sure that that the Arts Centre not only survives, but thrives, by whatever means may be necessary. I realise that budgets are tight right now, but the critical issue is one of vision, or lack thereof. More pragmatically, visitors need reasons to actually spend time (and money) in Christchurch, and citizens need reasons to live here. Sorry, but we don't have a naturally stunning environment. We can't even compete with Auckland, Wellington or Dunedin on those grounds, let alone Queenstown. Mostly what we once had were our heritage cityscapes, add now, post-quake, we absolutely need to retain the few landmark buildings that are left. When it comes down to it, I'd much rather pay higher rates to support a lively cultured city than live in a dreary utilitarian cultural wilderness, no matter how cheap it might be to live there, or how good the footpaths or cycleways, for that matter. As an economist, I don't even think there is any economic loss for ratepayers, when they "invest" in public goods like parks or public buildings. Such investment does need to be carefully scrutinised and managed. But the value of our properties ultimately depends entirely on what people are prepared to pay in order to live in Christchurch, and that depends very much on the lifestyle the city has to offer. And the value of our businesses depends very much on what the city offers to citizens and visitors alike. Towns that fail to provide attractive living environments ultimately stagnate, and property values fall. So, I believe that providing adequate support to institutions like the Arts Centre will not just increase the enjoyment of ratepayers, but their nett wealth too.

I've had some unforgettable experiences there, and I know many others have too. It's a place where people can come as they are and feel inspired. That's why I'm really hoping the Council will continue to fund it. Thanks for listening, and here's to keeping our arts scene thriving! Best, Ping

The Art Centre is one of the most important buildings in Christchurch. It sits in the centre of the city amongst beautiful architecture and gardens. It is itself a architectural gem and has incredible history including its link to Rutherford. It is a place where people meet to socialise or use the facilities such as restaurants and cinema, and where performances happen. It is a mecca for tourism including the boutique hotel. It is a city icon. It is admired by all cantabrians. The loss of the Art Centre would be devastating. We must retain and maintain this beautiful complex whatever it takes. If the trust can't run it properly perhaps it is time the Council took over. WE MUST SAVE THE ART CENTRE.

The Arts Centre has provided substantial support and opportunity to a wide variety of artists and crafts people over many years. It is a core venue which enables a multitude of genre to educate, entrance and entertain a wide public. Not only does it serve the arts community and their audiences but it is a very strong draw for tourism having a world wide reputation for its intrinsic historic significance and its enlightened re-purposing as an arts amenity. For both cultural and financial reasons the city council should continue to fund its survival. It would be a serious loss to Christchurch, its people, and to the hundreds of thousands of visitors from abroad who make it part of their itinerary, for it to lose its function as The Arts Centre of Christchurch.

Dear Christchurch City Council Members, I am writing to advocate for the funding of The Arts Centre in Christchurch. As a vital cultural institution within our city, The Arts Centre plays a pivotal role in fostering creativity, community engagement, and economic development. Here are several compelling reasons why the Council should allocate funds to support this invaluable asset:

Cultural Enrichment: The Arts Centre serves as a hub for artistic expression, offering a diverse range of programs, exhibitions, and performances that enrich the cultural fabric of our city.

Community Engagement: The Arts Centre is more than just a venue for artistic expression—it is a gathering place where people from all walks of life come together to connect, collaborate, and celebrate the arts. By funding The Arts Centre, the Council can ensure that it remains accessible to all members of our community, fostering a sense of belonging.

Economic Impact: The Arts Centre plays a crucial role in driving economic growth and revitalizing the local economy. Through its programs and events, The Arts Centre attracts visitation from locals and domestic tourists stimulating spending at local businesses and supporting jobs in the hospitality, retail, and tourism sectors.

Heritage Preservation: The Arts Centre occupies a historic landmark—the former University of Canterbury campus—that holds significant cultural and architectural value. By investing in The Arts Centre, the Council can contribute to the preservation and restoration of this iconic heritage site, ensuring that it remains a cherished asset for future generations to enjoy.

Education and Outreach: The Arts Centre offers a range of education and outreach initiatives that engage youth and foster creativity. By supporting these initiatives, the Council can invest in the next generation of artists, innovators, and cultural leaders, enriching the educational landscape of our city.

In conclusion, funding The Arts Centre is not just an investment in the arts—it is an investment in the vitality, vibrancy, and resilience of our community. By allocating resources to support this cultural institution, the Christchurch City Council can help ensure that the arts continue to thrive and enrich the lives of residents and visitors alike. Thank you for considering this proposal. I am confident that by working together, we can ensure a bright and vibrant future for The Arts Centre and the city of Christchurch as a whole. Sincerely, Lucy Coutts

So much work has gone into post earthquake work and it has huge history. It is part of the character of our city. It is a place known to many of us for exhibits, crafts, education, dance, gathering and much more. If we lose the things that represent our cultural history and the city's character we become just another city. Don't let something that makes us unique and special fall away. Save the Arts Centre. The Arts Centre must be funded for 4 key reasons: 1. The Arts Centre is a defining intergenerational gift to the city. It's world class neo-gothic architecture connects us to our city past. At the same time recent restoration work, latterly activated by a contemporary programme of arts and cultural activities, is connecting us to the future. Considering what the city has lost as a result of the earthquakes, The Arts Centre's unique intergenerational story commands that it be preserved. 2. The Arts Centre is well-managed and cost-effective in the value it extracts for rate payers. It balances the leasing of spaces at commercial market rates to minimise the cost impact upon ratepayers, while also retaining spaces so that it remains accessible to the wider arts and cultural community. It arts and cultural programme a run frugally - and often enabled by the generosity of a community of donors and supporters who are committed to the Arts Centre's purpose. As much as any arts organisation can, the Arts Centre 'pays its way' - and while, like any other community of cultural asset, it still requires Council funding, Council's investment is more than amply returned by the economic and reputational value it creates. 3. The Arts Centre has innovated to remain relevant, and in the way it has attracted new income. The establishment of a Healthtec Hub complements the City's health percent, and adds to the innovation ecosystem that Christchurch has become known for. The Observatory Hotel provides an accommodation experience unlike any other in the city. 4. The Arts Centre is a key feature of the Christchurch visitor experience. Visitors today expect more than 'buildings' - they expect experiences that tell them stories of place, and create deeper memories that they can share with other future visitors. The Arts Centre's arts and cultural programme tell those stories and enliven the building that house them. Not supporting the arts and cultural programme at the Arts Centre would weaken Christchurch's visitor experience.

The Arts Centre provides a heritage heart to the rebuilt city. It is the first stop for any visitors from out of town. We have been to many events there, and put on a couple of musical theatre shows there as Enchanting Productions. Losing the feel and purpose of this area would be a disaster. I fully support use of my rate payments to fund the Arts Centre, and would be willing to see an increase in my rates for this purpose.

For 30 years I and my family have been going to the arts centre, to dance classes at southern ballet, court theatre and the wonderful weekend. It is an integral part of our city and is the most deserving institution in our city. I attend many performances at Lumiere and just love that theatre. .I object strongly to any of my rates money going to the cathedral but would be more than happy to have a donation taken out for the arts centre.

I recognise that there are funding difficulties for many of our historic public buildings. However, if the Arts Centre were to close it would create a hollow in the centre of the city that would be hard to fill. The centre provides a diverse range of experiences from the market stalls to the Great Hall, the Centre Gallery and the Teese. I regularly visit when in the city and always show the Centre off to overseas visitors. I would see the money spent on its restoration and earthquake strengthening as a great waste if it were to close. The Worcester Street precinct, from the Art Gallery to the Museum (once restored) would be diminished by the closure of the Art Centre. I submit that the Christchurch City Council should continue the existing support for the Arts Centre pending a collaborative review by the Council of the funding and structure of the Arts Centre Trust to ensure that it continues to be viable in the future.

The Arts Centre is so much part of our history and so valuable in the present. It has received Council funding in the past and deserves Council support now and in the future. The variety of tenants and uses are evidence of good planning on the part of the Trust. I am a ratepayer and I insist that we support the Arts Centre generously. It benefits a much wider range of people than, say, Te Kaha!

It's an iconic precinct with huge tourism potential but, importantly, it serves as a hub for locals who have a deep and enduring interest in all aspects of the arts. It's loss would negatively affect the soul of Christchurch. The Dux restaurant also needs reinstatement as an integral part of the Centre.

The Arts Centre, its history and purpose are unique. The pleasure of beauty, design, aesthetics, variety of purpose, calm and relaxation is unequivocal. As is its placement next to the Botanic Gardens which enhances its purpose. I want my contributions to Christchurch through my rates to go to the Arts Centre for the benefit of fellow citizens, residents and tourists.

This taonga is part of the very soul of Christchurch. The Great Hall in particular has been vital to me throughout my life in Christchurch. Firstly when I went to the lunchtime concerts as a schoolboy. Then as a part of the Arts side of the University of Canterbury (I was at both campuses). More recently I have been helping Trish Rainey at the outstandingly successful lunchtime concerts- these are frequently sold out. They draw many into the arts centre. The rest of the Arts Centre is just as important. It provides a space for social gatherings whether in small or large groups. It has a special ambience quite different from the riverside and other areas of Christchurch. It is a natural companion to the Museum and the Art Gallery- showcasing the creative arts thriving in Christchurch. Music and singing are a particularly strong component of Christchurch culture. Our schools are known for their fostering of music. And the Great Hall is a wonderfully acoustic venue for showcasing the best of musical talent within and from outside Christchurch. One Auckland pianist told me he comes to the Great Hall to play whenever he can get an invitation because it "is acoustically better than any venue in Auckland." Then there are the other activities in the arts centre cultivating yet more of the creative arts in the city. A city is the poorer without a thriving cultural heart. Which carries on daily. The City Council is the appropriate body to not only support the Arts Centre but it should be actively promoting it as a jewel of Christchurch, the Council should be showing pride in the Arts Centre. Don't penny pinch over an institution which will long outlast the current council. History and future ratepayers will judge the council very poorly if it abandons the Arts Centre to lower a rates bill for current ratepayers. Financially supporting the Arts Centre should be a no-brainer.

The Arts Centre is such an integral part of Christchurch as a city. If we were to lose the Arts Centre, we would lose one of the few remaining cultural icons in our city. It's been part of the cityscape for so long, it's unbelievable that it wouldn't receive council support to remain viable. There are so many businesses that would be affected by its closure. Not only the businesses that operate in and around the Arts Centre, but many tourism and other peripheral companies would lose an important part of their itineraries or interesting places to visit. There is so much history in the Arts Centre, which you can see by the wear patterns in the stone steps! How many people have walked on those steps since they were laid? It's crazy to me that the Arts Centre was restored following the earthquakes, only to be excluded from the Long Term Plan to keep it alive! We have lost so much history and special Christchurch features because of and since the earthquakes, please don't let the Arts Centre become another casualty.

I think we need the Arts Centre more than a stadium or a crapped out old church! While I would not support a rates increase for the Cathedral restoration AT ALL, I would be happy for an increase to support the Arts Centre. I have been to the Arts Centre on numerous occasions over the years and have been part of exhibitions there as well. I think the council MUST RETHINK the funding strategy so this fantastic facility can continue to exist.

We have been so excited to finally move to Christchurch and purchase a house here. Mostly because of the vibrant arts scene. We have been visiting the arts centre since prior to the quakes and have appreciated the venue in so many ways. We've been to many gigs and exhibitions. Since moving to Christchurch earlier this year we have embraced this stunning series of spaces. To not continue to support this centre is tantamount to cultural denigration. This series of spaces provides access to interesting cultural and art events and community interactions for all races creeds and religions and people from all walks of life and socio economic backgrounds. Christchurch is a multicultural city. We must continue to support and celebrate this diversity. Arts and associated events and services are beyond important and truly build the fabric of a society which has suffered and is still suffering. Calm, thought provoking and accessible places are what we need more of. Please please continue to fund this centre. We moved here because of places like this.

The Arts Centre is a key part of the Christchurch Arts scene and culture. It needs to be funded by the Christchurch City Council in the Long Term Plan. As a person who grew up in Christchurch I am horrified that the art centre is at threat of losing its funding. I am a fine arts graduate but had it not been for the art centre I doubt I would have ever embarked on a creative career. I visited the art centre most weekends as a teenager as it was the only place in Christchurch that made me see and feel what is possible for creatives like myself. The working studios, the markets, the exhibitions and the grandeur and historical weight of the buildings and dynamic spaces inspired my curious mind and encouraged me to be so much more than ordinary. The Art centre is a unique and utterly vital part of our city that needs to be supported and respected for all it has done and will do for future generations. Sincerely Nicola Baird

The Arts Centre is an amazing and unique facility for Christchurch. It is a fabulous facility for local people and visitors. Our family has recently benefited from visits to the Teece Museum and the Rutherford's Den. Both of these visited were so enhanced with educarors/ curators delivering us an absolute wealth of information, including some of the Arts Centre history, which brought the details so much more 'to life'. Our Rutherford's Den visit included watching experiments in The Maker Space by a physicist from UC. It was so great this ideal and flexible space was available for this entertaining and inspiring display to primary and intermediate aged kids. A brilliant early introduction. We also visited this space for a very brilliant stained glass art workshop, delivered by a local artist. At the end of this we visited the Great Hall to learn about the stained glass there. We had to wait and queue to get in while very happy-looking people, who had been to a lunchtime concert inside, filed out. Yesterday, we met friends at Fudge Cottage where my daughter, and friends, decorated some fudge in a holiday workshop. We then ambled through the spaces admiring the sculptures /environs and talking about the history of the place (more of which we learnt on our recent learning trip to Rutherford's Den). The Arts Centre is vital for Christchurch and not only for showcasing and enjoying the arts. But as a centre for a many other reasons such as creating, gathering, meeting, teaching, learning, shopping, dining and entertainment for all.

The Arts Centre adds so much to Christchurch for the community, artists and musicians. Christchurch would lose so much if this was to close. After going through such a lot to get to the place it is in now that would be tragic. I would be willing as a rate payer to pay a little more to have it there. I submitted on the long term plan and did not notice this lack of funding. Had I done so I would have asked that the council continue to support the arts centre that provides this creative space to our community. Please support on going funding.

There are far too few places like it left. I walk through there and have a sense of nostalgia. I think about the family stall that sold goldfish, I think about souvlaki, and how at the time, it was one of the only places to get ethnic food in Christchurch. No other place exists like that now, how could you consider letting this place lose it's heritage.

The Arts Centre is an intrinsic part of the cultural fabric of our city. These Gothic revival buildings are instantly recognisable, & steeped in history, having been the seat of the university in its heyday - the Arts Centre houses many local enterprises, which are cocooned in its historic walls. The Arts Centre is accessible, & supportive of local artists, through its residency scheme - these are examples amongst a myriad of positive things the Arts Centre nurtures. What more reason is needed to provide funding for this jewel in Canterbury's crown?

The Arts Centre has many memories and my own memories as well. It is a great tourist spot and gives character to our Christchurch. We can keep the Beckenham library as is and put that money in the Arts Centre. What would Christchurch be without the arts centre or even worse with a run down Arts Centre. How does that represent Christchurch?

The Arts Centre Trust has done a wonderful job to fix up the Arts Centre in the wake of the earthquakes and to create vibrant, inclusive spaces that cater to the needs of the diverse communities of Ōtautahi Christchurch. It's such a key asset for Christchurch I'd like to see the council continuing to support the present management of the Arts Centre to continue to oversee the administration of this absolutely crucial asset for the city.

The Arts centre represents the most amazing and unique piece of architectural history the city has. It was always and always will be an amazing place for events, markets etc. it is of far more value to the city than a bike park. It is a fine example of gothic architecture and its history is such a part of Christchurch, we can't lose it and need to support it.

The Arts Centre is a major point of culture for Christchurch city. I regularly visit it for a range of reasons; high quality shopping for myself or great nz-made gifts, beautiful toys for my child, art displays & special exhibitions, brunch with my family or a wine tasting at The Cellar. It's probably one of the most regular places I visit in the city, so I just can't understand why this isn't planned to get the funding it normally does, and absolutely deserves as a highly functioning, seemingly well run part of the city that's enjoyed by many tourists and locals alike. This decision should be revisited.

Not only is The Arts Centre one of the campus locations of University of Canterbury where I am currently studying but is also is home to many fond memories of days spent down in the old Court Theatre or visiting the markets on the weekends as a child. The Arts Centre has continued to be a fantastic place to visit for tourists and Cantabrians alike looking to learn/explore arts, crafts or to just soak in the gothic architecture that used to make up so much of the Christchurch so many grew up with. To lose The Arts Centre would take away so many learning opportunities and precious memories.

The Arts Centre is part of the "living heart" of Christchurch and a "jewel in the crown" in terms of heritage, culture, visitor attraction, and a vibrant inner city vibe. Plus, following the earthquakes, far too much of our remaining heritage is either still awaiting repair, eg the Provincial Chambers, or lost to ready public access (e.g. the former Our City.) The Arts Centre remains readily accessible and represents a long term commitment from both the Christchurch council and citizens to retain and ensure its continuance. This also implies a constant financial commitment, which I believe must be maintained or risk blighting the Worcester Blvd / Botanic Gardens precinct. I ask the council to reverse this ill-advised and extremely shortsighted proposal.

The Arts Centre is iconic to Christchurch especially with its distinctive architecture. It is the one thing that I wanted to be saved after the earthquakes. The Arts Centre holds so much of our history and it is also carrying its unique atmosphere into the future to inspire my mokopuna and beyond. I admire the Arts Centre Board for starting to raise funds early after the quakes to restore this our heritage. It gave me hope to rebuild my life. Although I have contributed to funding its restoration, as a Superannuitant my contribution is limited. However I would rather my rates be used to assist the Arts Centre than the Cathedral or any of the other large projects. I was watching a play there at the Court Theatre when an after shock hit. Someone screamed but we all sat ready for the next part of the play. Another larger aftershock hit. Then a different person stood and gave a standing ovation. Next we all stood and joined in, clapping while we walked out in an orderly relaxed manner. Many of us have wonderful stories of the Arts Centre. Let's hold on to our unique centre which continues to bring our heritage to life and is a sustainable competitive advantage for our city.

Being born and raised in Christchurch, The Arts Centre is the heart of the city. There are so many fond memories over the years of the old weekend markets, food trucks, buskers festivals and movies under the stars. It's a beautiful heritage site that offers so much to residents and visitors to the city. I now have an 18 month old Daughter and have already attended music classes and a family day continuing the experiences and memories for her. It would be extremely short sighted to not provide funding and risk losing such a huge part of the city and one that is regularly used, visited and wanted. Do not let future generations miss out on amazing facility for our city.

The Arts Centre is fantastic! I find myself there every second week or so. I have two preschoolers who have enjoyed so many different events there. Recently we attended a free concert in the great hall and I have never seen my three year old so quiet. She was amazed by the stained glass windows, the spotlight, the height of the ceilings, the balcony, the sound of the drum from the stage. What a disaster it would be to loose access to such a treasure for her, her children, all of us.

The Arts are at the centre of Christchurch and the Arts Centre is pivotal in both it's history and its future. It is unfathomable that after all the effort to rebuild and create a space for locals and tourists alike that funding would be cut. "When Winston Churchill was asked to cut arts funding in favour of the war effort, he simply replied, 'then what are we fighting for?' "

It's a Christchurch icon and a hub for tourists, it's aesthetically beautiful and filled with memories for many of us. My question is, how and why is this the council to fail on this? After the arts centre has been a Christchurch institution for a very long time. One of our heritage sites that is still standing, please don't be the council who lets it go.

Apart from the love of the local community for these beautiful buildings and the institutions they house , the Art Centre is a MAJOR tourist destination. It will be absolutely shameful and misguided if the council does not choose to continue its support. It survived the earthquakes so let's make sure it survives the council chopping block !!

I am writing to strongly advocate for the continued funding of our local arts centre. This institution plays a crucial role in our community and deserves ongoing support for several key reasons. The arts centre serves as a vital hub for creativity, cultural expression, and inclusivity within our community. It contributes significantly to the local economy by attracting visitors and supporting local businesses. Moreover, it plays a critical role in education by inspiring and developing artistic skills in our youth. Continuing to fund the arts centre is an investment in our community's cultural richness, economic growth, and educational opportunities. I urge you to prioritize this funding to ensure the enduring benefits it brings to our city.

Thank you for the opportunity to comment on the council's long term funding not including that for the Arts Centre. In a nutshell, this is an absolutely appalling proposal by a bunch of Philistines, who certainly do not represent my views as a rates payer. The old Canterbury University site is a jewel in what little is left of historical Christchurch. Its diverse roles in the culture of our community is vital to our city's wellbeing, which is what you as a Council were elected to protect. Do your job and ensure the continuation and growth of the ARTS Centre. I am gobsmacked that my Council should even consider not funding the Arts Centre on a long-term basis. My family has enjoyed it's various functions and resources over four decades and some of them have performed there. It is a jewel in this city's crown and as a rate payer for over 40 years I strongly demand that you reverse this proposal. Whatever cost-cutting measures you take in these difficult economic times, this is one that must not happen.

I love the Arts Centre. I enjoyed my 11 year tenancy in The Old Physics Building and only departed because an earthquake forced me out. The restoration is so well done. I always take visitors, especially family and friends from overseas, there to enjoy the peaceful courtyard and the beautiful Neo-Gothic architecture. To me it is well worth supporting this iconic cultural landmark. It's the perfect counterpoint to all the cheap, often ugly commercial building so plentiful around Christchurch. Honestly, I find it difficult to believe that I am having to write this response - of course you save the Arts Centre.

Arts and culture are the life blood of Ōtautahi Christchurch, without it we will be a sad, dull community with little heart. Strongly suggest whatever funding you have put toward the cathedral is reallocated towards the art centre - let's face it, the Anglican Church has enough money to fix its assets without a handout from rates payers.

No one wanted their money going into the cathedral which is all dead money now, I'd much rather it came here. Might I add we also don't have a functioning museum at present. The art centre is one of the places for cultural connect in the city

Dear Councillors, Please, please, continue to use ratepayer income to contribute toward funding both the operations AND the capital needed to keep the Arts Centre as the centre of our cultural and creative civic fabric. I cannot imagine a city without the Arts Centre as a focus for all that is good about your cultural legacy. I have been here since 1977 and have used it constantly - as the Gilbert & Sullivan rehearsal rooms, my daughter's ballet education, the Great Hall as a venue for hundreds of kids who perform in High School Drama Festivals and the Sheilah Winn Shakespeare Festival, a place to eat like Annies, Le Cafe, Bunsen, Cellar Door; favourite movie house first Academy and now Lumiere; to say nothing of the food and artisan markets that sustained many many weekends for both our family and our visitor outings; the galleries near the ginkgo tree, the new galleries in the Centre Quad. The Arts /Centre provides a natural link between the Inner city and riverbank through to the Gardens and the Art Gallery and the Museum (currently restricted to CoCA and Ravenscar, all of which are linked by the Tram. The Arts Centre, even without The Court and the Dux, is valuable as a link between the past and present. More importantly it is a fundamental cornerstone of our future as a modern city with a great optimism based on our best traditions and our rich and diverse cultural capital. David Chambers

I am surprised that the option to not support the Art Centre is considered. This architectural treasure, has been a hub for the community for a long time. Most of the significant buildings in the centre of the City were destroyed and demolished. However the Art Centre was restored needs to be preserved to show case local arts and crafts. Fine Arts, hospitality and entertainment are what societies thrive on supporting healthy relationships. The Botanical Gardens close by, provide ample opportunities to combine visits to both and make this a destination of good quality City experience. The Dux de Lux, was one of the best venues in the city and could be again. Rent and Leases will finance upkeep.

I'm currently London based and about to travel back to Chch to holiday with my 6mo old; the Arts Centre is absolutely always forefront of the mind as a place to be, visit and explore. Frankly and honestly, I just can't understand how this submission is even needed. C'mon, think about it team! What a ridiculous idea to get rid of this beautiful historic place.

These are beautiful heritage buildings. The people of Chch and tourists love them. The small businesses and the services they provide are unique and add character and arts to Chch. They provide unique creative educational opportunities and experiences for adults and children in the heart of the city. For some reason they have always been under utilised. Please support the arts centre as a now rare heritage area of Chch and help it to thrive and meet its full potential.

Please continue funding the Arts Centre! I can't imagine Christchurch without it. My parents, Gordon and Libby Ogilvie, studied there in the 1950s. It is a wonderful place filled with history, the arts and generous people making a huge contribution to the city. I know my parents would want me to make this submission.

Within the heart of this beautiful city rises up a collection of buildings enveloped in history and grandeur, not only a testament to generations past, also a symbol of what is still to come. A performer in the Grand Hall this week captivated their audience not just with music. As he finished his first song, looking across to the stain glass and stone, words so few could of uttered, " the first time I sang here was in 1964" Here he was over half a century later recalling memories from the same stage, still GIVING with music to the many peoples of Christchurch. In a world that takes so much away, let the Arts Centre continue giving.

My memories of the weekend markets are wonderful- great place to meet friends, the variety of stalls, and the live music. The Christchurch arts centre has been a cornerstone to my love for art and has shaped my life for the last 30 years. I would not now have worked in film and theatre production or have the same love for live music or for handcrafts had I not encountered these things first at the Christchurch arts centre. It brings the arts to people's lives in a way that galleries alone don't do and I strongly believe that funding priority should be given to The Arts Centre. It is unique in New Zealand and losing it would be a heartbreaking loss to those in and outside of Christchurch.

The Arts Centre is one of ChChs icons, arguably more so than the Cathedral. Having been lucky enough to travel to Europe this year and seeing how historic places are honoured and respected has made me feel that we need to preserve our history - our story. The earthquakes took so much history away from us. The Arts Centre has had a place in history through different eras - as a university, a meeting place and architecturally and is fundamental in bringing people into the city. There's nowhere else like it in the city.

After all this time and money spent to rebuild it after the quakes, it seems like an absolutely silly move to not fund it moving forward. The refurbishment of the Museum will all be for nothing as there wont be anything to support the area if the arts centre goes down the drain. Christchurch needs to hold onto its culture, with the arts centre being at the heart of that. An absolute shame if all the hard work was to be undone.

I've lived in Ōtautahi less than three years and that's long enough to recognise the arts centre as an unparalleled hub for showcasing excellence in exactly that which this city prides itself on: culture, diversity, unity, creativity and innovation. Should the arts centre close, to where would this go? What would be done with this iconic, dignified building? Closed off to the public to become private offices? reopened as a hub dedicated capitalism as a shopping mall? either would mean throwing out all the previously mentioned values. This is simply too embedded in and with the fabric of Ōtautahi to lose. I urge you to buck the suit which our current government is leading and say yes to celebrating the arts, celebrating diversity, celebrating unity of all peoples. Save the arts centre.

The arts centre is a regional and national treasure that should be preserved for future generations. It is part of Christchurch's character. If not the Christchurch City Council then Christchurch NZ should fund (subsidise) the Arts Centre. Many Christchurch residents think of the Arts Centre as OUR heritage treasure and a welcoming place to engage with our arts and arts community through film, music, dance, theatre, crafts, exhibitions, our history, visual arts. That means we as rate payers are happy to support it if it needs subsidising. Millions are being spent on the "trophy" projects of the new stadium and the Anglican Cathedral. These will continue to be subsidised once in use. Especially the stadium. THEN why not the Arts centre? Many tourists absolutely love it. I've witnessed many busloads exploring and taking photos. We want tourists for our economy's health and cultural exchange.

The Arts Centre is an iconic and unique part of our city- appreciated and much photographed by locals and tourists alike. It is part of the beautiful stretch of our city from the Botanical Gardens to the Riverside. With more visitors anticipated from the stadium and convention centre, there is an obvious need to have the current arts precinct shine. It will be there on all the days when there aren't stadium events or conferences as well. It would be short-sighted to deny this funding, which is but a fraction of the funding being spent on the stadium.

The Arts Centre is essential to Christchurch, for many reasons and to even consider it could go broke and possibly close is something we cannot allow to happen. If the arts Centre Trust went broke potentially the City Council would need to pick up everything and run it which is something the City Council needs to stay well clear of. I can also see the City Council is being asked by everyone for funds, Orana Park, you have already done a sweet deal for the A&P Show on its rent, money for St Albans pool, Isaac Theatre Royal, all of which is just increasing Rates in the city at a time when people can least afford it. The City Council cannot be seen as the funder of all of these organisations. I think if the City Council is to consider giving money annually to the Arts Centre which i would support, I think it needs to get concessions from the arts Centre Trust. It needs to review its cost base on staffing levels, wages associated costs, but it also needs to go to all of the building tenants to help keep it open. I have heard but do not know for sure that the OPEX paid by these tenants does not cover all costs, why when with all other commercial buildings we have to cover OPEX in full do they not, is the insurance sensible, in todays financial environment we all have to look at costs and sometimes we have to remove the nice to have, and just revert to the must have. I do not think funding should just be a blank cheque with no changes in the Trust business plan.

Please keep this icon going. It's integral to the heart of Christchurch, it's imperative that we have a centre for the arts in the city. Evidence shows that it's not a nice to have but feeds the soul. It also is an extremely popular tourist attraction with all the benefits that come with this. Also what a down right waste of money not too. Please don't shut this down. It's a short term measure.

The council must make long term plans not short term responses. The centre is a long term asset for the city and must be maintained

The Arts Centre must continue to be funded in my opinion given the crucial part it plays in the fabric of the city. It is a unique part of our city's heritage. Personally I have loved being able to participate in the Sculpture Festival as a jeweller in the last few years. This has been a wonderful and enriching experience.

The arts centre is the heart of Christchurch. It's a great area to display art, visit art, see touch,hear, and feel art. It has ambience. We love the facilities and events especially the great hall concerts. It's a great tourist attraction. It brings people together, has community spirit. It and its programmes needs to keep being funded by the council. It's also great to have art spaces to see artists at work. Please bring back the full Sunday arts market too. We can't lose it or it's importance to Christchurch! To us its more important than funding the stadium (we,ve only gone there 3x in 50 years or the Anglican church, not churchy). It is the heart of the city. Don't lose it. We go there at least once a fortnight for music, art, movies, dinner and shows. Please increase your funding in the council plan to keep it active and thriving!

The Arts Centre, much like the Cathedral, is a Christchurch icon. Instead of wasting money on useless things like bike lanes popping up everywhere because a few councilors wanted them, the people's money should be used on things that benefit the community and more people in general. The arts centre brings many people enjoyment and a creative space to work and design and express themselves. Council people must consider other people's wants and needs when deciding what things to fund and frivolous spending on unnecessary mundane things like bike lanes and traffic easements at roundabouts should take a back seat to cultural and entertainment funding. Thank you.

The Arts centre and the Cathedral are historic, beautiful buildings and pretty much all we have left from that era. They are significant and meaningful to an enormous number of Christchurch residents. If it's a choice of priorities, then use money for the restoration and maintenance of these two icons and drop the pointless, grossly expensive and hazardous cycle ways currently being installed. Suggestions that the Arts centre is no longer financially supported is the most small minded, culturally ignorant and imbecilic idea to come from the CCC. Appalling.

The Arts Centre is iconic Christchurch. It is our history and a beautiful tourist attraction. We're so lucky it was already strengthened to the degree it was, so we didn't lose it in the quakes like so many other historic buildings in Chch. Let's keep funding out to the degree required to retain it for perpetuity.

The arts are vital, full stop. The city council needs to fund The Arts Centre. I am deeply disappointed that the city council doesn't understand the importance of the arts and the important role The Arts Centre plays in supporting the arts and making access to the arts in all forms available to everyone. The Arts Centre is crucial to the arts and culture of Christchurch and needs to continue to be able to continue to provide the wonderful services it supports and offers.

Because it is one of iconic building which contribute to create atmosphere what is Christchurch. We lost so many valuable historic buildings at the event of earthquake such as Cathedral, Churches etc. We know that once it has gone, we never re-get it as exactly same what it has the materials, texture, smell and layered history which attached people's life in Christchurch. Pleas take care of it to exist.

The Arts are the soul of a city. We have an existing facility which provides excellent venues for film, exhibitions, lectures and the like - not to have it would produce a void. It doesn't cost a lot in the overall scheme of things and yet provides so much enrichment for so many. Are we a civilised city or a cultural wasteland?

The Arts Centre is an essential part of the fabric of the city. If it is not funded, the buildings may not be maintained. We now have a very fine group of unique buildings right at the heart of the city, we should cherish these; it would be criminal to let this go.

The Arts Centre is an institution for Christchurch and a place where both amateur a professional artists and creatives have had a place to grow. It is also a key connector of our city to Hagley Park/Gardens which is important for the attraction, and movement, of tourism throughout the city.

Before I moved to Christchurch, I used to visit my parents here and the Arts Centre was about the first place we would visit. My father remembered studying engineering there and was just thrilled that the buildings had been used for such a wonderful purpose, and were still so alive. Since I moved here 18 years ago there has barely been a month when I haven't been at the arts centre, whether performing in musical theatre, big band, or classical music, or bringing my students to perform, to visiting the shops, to showing visitors the buildings, the markets, the shops, the eateries - the list goes on. The Arts Centre is a taonga of Ōtautahi and the idea of it not continuing is horrifying. It is a beautiful and integral part of our whakapapa, our heritage, and it must be saved.
